

EDUCATION & LABOR COLLABORATIVE FORUM

SAVE THE DATE

PREPARING TEACHERS TO EDUCATE AND ORGANIZE FOR SOCIAL JUSTICE

This Forum will consider ways education and labor can collaborate to improve the preparation of teachers of working-class students and to promote the study of the labor movement in classrooms with the goal of defending democracy by producing an activist citizenry.

The Forum is open to all Educators (teachers, teacher educators, teacher education students, university and community college faculty, labor educators, education and community activists, and families of working-class students) and Labor Unionists (union organizers and activists, labor leaders, and union members, and union families of school-aged students).

MARCH 28 & 29, 2008

(immediately following the annual AERA conference)

Friday, 4–8 PM • Saturday, 8 AM –2 PM

The Forum will take place at the United Federation of Teachers
5th Floor, 52 Broadway, NY, NY 10004

For program details and registration information, visit <http://organizingthecurriculum.org/aboutus.aspx>